St. Luke news

A sizable group of members and friends came out Sunday, March 16, to attend the regular preaching services at the St. Luke Baptist Church.

At 11 p.m., since the pastor, Rev. J. E. McLaughlin, has been ill and under the care of his doctor in Danville, he was present, but the service was in the charge of the Rev. W. E. Singletary. The Junior Choir gave inspiring music. Mrs. Josephine Nowlin was at the piano. Rev. Alvin Jones was also present and assisted in the opening devotions.

Rev. Singletary spoke from St. Mark 12:28. Subject was "Guideline to Happiness." He said we must keep the spiritual law to be happy, to love one's neighbor requires first to love one's self. This was well taken by the listeners.

The offering was good. Some members came forward and rededicated themselves to the church. The St. Luke folks were so glad to have their pastor back again and doing very well.

On March 10 the R.S.V.P. Clayton Club of St. Luke met in the home of Mrs. Louise Blankenship for work-together meeting. It was much enjoyed and carried out by the leader, Mrs. Louise Canada. A delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Blankenship, assisted by Mrs. Daisy Hamlett. The group made some plans for work in the coming meetings.

Some of the club members look forward each Friday to going to Lynchburg home and hospital to do volunteer work which is a joy and satisfaction to each of them that goes.

Mrs. Bertha King was a caller in the home of Mrs. C. H. Canada Sunday and they attended the annual Willing Workers Club anniversary at 3 p.m. at the Shiloh Baptist Church. Mrs. Alice Mabry was guest speaker and it was an enjoyable occasion.

Mrs. Catherine Tweedy, who underwent treatment at Virginia Baptist Hospital recently, is now at her home making a nice recovery.

Mrs. Anne Canada has returned home after spending some time with her son and his wife in Parris Island, S. C. on the occasion of the arrival of a new granddaughter.

The Baptist Bible Institute will start its 5-day session at the Hat Creek Baptist Church Sunday, March 23, at 1:30 p.m., ending Sunday, March 28. All interested people are asked to please attend, you'll be glad you did.

The W.S.C.S. of St. Luke will have its regular meeting March 29 at 6 p.m. All members are asked to please be present.

"If it's to be, it's up to me", these are words that were stated by Mr. Samuel Hunter at church Sunday. So, if our church is to be, it is up to us to play well our part to make it so.

Mount Pleasant news

"We try to choose leaders who choose to do right." John 11:49-53

Our pastor, Rev. K. W. Davis, of the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, was not with us in February due to illness. He has recovered and plans to be with us this coming fourth Sunday at 11 a.m. Come out and be with us.

One of our members, Mr. Jessie Hix, is doing better. He is in New York with his daughters for the time being.

We are proud to have Mrs. Barbara Wynn and family, the former Barbara Forbes, to move back into the community. She is a great asset to our church and Sunday school.

The Pastor's Aid Club will be celebrating their second anniversary this coming fourth Sunday at 4 p.m. Rev. Mac Johnson and choir, of the New Divine Church of Lynchburg, will be with us. Asking everyone to come out.

The Echoes of Glory from Triumph will present a program of gospel singing at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church on the fifth Saturday, March 29, at 7 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend this program of worship in songs.
